

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE February 16, 2007
CONTACT: Jared Cordes

(202) 225-5235

"Fighting for North Florida Farmers"

By Congressman Allen Boyd (D-FL)

This year, Congress will set upon the important task of rewriting the farm bill, which will establish our nation's

Every five years, Congress writes a new farm bill, and many people who are not farmers may think that this is a

Our most recent farm bill, the Farm Security and Rural Investment Act of 2002, made major improvements to

Unfortunately, our country's economic environment is not the same as it was in 2001 when the 2002 Farm Bill was

Despite our budget challenges, the rewrite of the farm bill presents huge promise and potential for the agriculture

As a fifth generation farmer and one of a handful of active farmers in Congress, I know firsthand the challenges

*For more information about the South House Agriculture Summit on Saturday, February 24, please visit